

Grizzly Bears Of The Wild: A First Nations wildlife journey into the Great Bear Rainforest

Starting from: Port McNeill, BC

Get up close and personal with British Columbia's grizzly bears on an intimate and immersive wildlife watching experience. Join First Nation guides on a tour through the awe-inspiring waterways of their people's traditional territories.

Reconnect with nature and learn all about First Nations culture in an all-in-one experience that combines respectful wildlife viewing with a sustainable tour through the super natural scenery of northern Vancouver Island and coastal mainland BC.

Highlights and possibilities:

- Safe grizzly bear viewing
- Traveling the sheltered waters of the Broughton Archipelago in search of coastal land and marine wildlife
- Local Indigenous history; viewing pictographs and shell midden beaches that are signs of ancient villages
- Viewing the oldest standing Big House in Canada, erected in 1887, and learn the interesting history of this ancient and culturally significant place
- Catered breakfast and lunch

$495 + GST per Adult
$395 + GST per youth

Great Bear Rainforest Photography Tour

4 unforgettable days exploring islands, fjords and temperate rainforests by boat and on foot to photograph and appreciate bears, whales, otters, dolphins and if we're lucky, coastal wolves.

3 nights accommodation at Kwaxwālawadi Lodge (Echo Bay) in a rustic and remote float cabin. Meals prepared for you daily by a very talented chef + snacks.

Guided journeys by Mike Willie to ancient places in a manner that honours the values of First Nations people who live here. You will learn about the local First Nations history and culture in the area and the importance of conservation.

All transfers to and from Port McNeill. Local and informative guides who know all the best spots to photograph wildlife and coastal landscapes.

Call or email for details!

Contact us at: info@seawolfadventures.ca
(250) 902-WOLF (9653)
seawolfadventures.ca
facebook.com/traveltruthbeauty
twitter.com/seawolftours

Mike Willie - Owner/Operator and guide.

Mike is Musgamakw Dzawada'enuxw, from the remote village of Kingcome Inlet, BC. He is actively involved in language and culture revitalization and values a deep connection to his ancestral teachings.